(ii) To facilitate the prompt passing of building plans?

(2) What measures does the Government propose to take for the purpose of carrying out the recommendations made in the report of the Commission on Child Labour?

TO-DAY'S BAZAAR.

ENJOYABLE PROGRAMME ARRANGED.

Favoured with ideal weather, the annual bazaar organised by the Hongkong Women's Guild and Ministering Children's League in aid of local charities and other children's funds, takes place in the grounds of Government House this afternoon. A most enjoyable programme has been arranged and success will assuredly smile on the fête.

The stalls will include the mayflower stall, the blue stall, children's stall, the dollar stall, and general stalls of useful and attractive articles. Among the Side Shows will be the "goldfish pond," "the fairy well," "naval chat," "the punch and judy," and "the fortune teller."

An entertainment take place at 3 p.m. for children, when the Dance of the Magpies and the Toyshop Frolic will be played by children.

Admission at the gate in Garden Road is adults 50 cents. By kind permission of Colonel Wyndham and Officers the Wiltshire Band will be in attendance.

The local funds supported by the results of the Bazaar will be, as in former years: The Netherlands Hospital, Italian Convent, London Missionary Society Training House, Baxter Mission, O.M.S. Victoria House, Blind and Foundling Home.

The Funds in the British Isles will be: The M.O.L. Cot at Ottershaw, Traillgar Home for Orphans, Merchant Service Guild, Royal Soldiers' Daughters, Orphan Homes of Scotland.

If the proceeds of last year are exceeded, a London hospital for children will be supported.

The hour of the children's performance has been changed from 6.30 to 6 o'clock.

$500 OPIUM FINE.

FORTUNE TELLER OR NOT?

Three Chinese were charged before Magistrate Orme this morning with the unlawful possession of a small quantity of prepared opium and 54 tablets of opium dross.

Mr. Leo d'Almada who appeared for all three men, said that one of them was prepared to undertake all responsibility. He therefore asked for the discharge of the others.

Chief Preventive Officer Watt had no objection and this course was adopted.

The other man, Mr. d'Almada said, was a fortune teller by profession and the opium was for his own use.

Remarking that the man's profession did not stand him in good stead, the Magistrate imposed a fine of $500.

TYPHOON WARNINGS.

The telegram quoted below was received by the local American Consulate General from the Manila Observatory at 11.00 a.m. to-day:—

Typhoon is about 145 deg Long, E. 20 deg. Lat. N. moving W.

Passengers arriving here by the P. & O. s.s. "Somali" yesterday included Miss D. Tilling, Mr. F. C. Todd, Mr. T. Haynes, and Mr. J. C. Fletcher.

A pile of timber collapsed without warning at the Tai Hing Cheung Timber Yard on Praya East yesterday and injured three Chinese who were removed to hospital.

The total output of the Kailan Mining Administration's mines for the week ending October 29, 1921 amounted to 85,836 tons and the sales during the period, to 93,431 tons.

Passing through the Colony en route to Hankow is Mr. A. W. Walkinshaw, who, it will be remembered, was a member of the original committee which laid out the golf course at Fanling.

Over $900 worth of clothing, jewellery and money was reported by a Chinese woman to have been stolen from her cubicle at No. 50, Ontai Street during her absence at the theatre last night. A look on the door was wrenched away.

Rear-Admiral Borrett, Commander A. G. Johnstone and Pay-Lieut. Commander Hannett were passengers from Shanghai to London by the P. & O. s.s. "Karmala" which sailed from here this morning.

Lieut. Colonel and Mrs. Oliveira, Colonel and Mrs. Cosens, Captain and Mrs. Soares, Engineer-Commander Grant, Lieut. Golding, and Lieut. McNab were among the passengers who sailed for London by the P. & O. s.s. "Karmala" this morning.

The local Sikh community will celebrate the birthday of Guru Nanak Dev Ji, at the Sikh Temple on Tuesday, November 15, 1921. Arrangements for free meals to all comers both morning and evening have been made by the Committee of the Institution.

A Chinese deportee from Singapore met his death yesterday through accidentally falling into the water while walking on the breakwater wall to the shed at Yaumatei. The water was shallow at the time and he struck his head violently on the rocks at the bed. Death took place a couple of minutes after he had been lifted out.

BOXING.

HONGKONG FEATHERWEIGHT CHAMPIONSHIP.

ARTICLES SIGNED TO-DAY.

Articles were signed this morning for the contest which is to take place between Teddy Neal, of Hongkong, and Leading Stoker Britt of the "Cairo" for the featherweight championship of the Colony. The fight will be one of the chief attractions at the Hongkong Boxing Association's tournament in the Theatre Royal on November 26. The articles were to have been signed last Saturday but Neal failed to turn up.

MOTOR ACCIDENT.

CAR TURNS TURTLE.

JAPANESE BABY KILLED.

Involving the life and causing injuries to several people, a serious motor accident occurred on the mainland yesterday afternoon.

A party of Japanese went out for a round trip in four large cars, three hired from the Dragon Garage and the other owned by Mr. Nishiyama, Manager of the Yokohama Specie Bank.

Mr. Nishiyama's car (No. 365) was in the lead, when going through Sheung Shui, car No. 166, driven by a Portuguese suddenly came into view from a turning near Mr. Johnstone's residence. No. 365 swerved to avoid No. 166, owned by Mr. de Souza. The latter stopped, having seen a third car approaching.

This car was not visible to the driver of No. 365 until he was abreast of No. 166. The result was that in avoiding this car Nos. 365 and 166 collided violently. No. 365 spun round and turning turtle, rolled down the embankment, a drop of 10 feet. The eight passengers in the car, two children and six adults were thrown out heavily. One of the children, the son of Mr. Togo, sub-Manager of the Yokohama Specie Bank was killed instantaneously and the others were severely injured.

An accident also occurred near Chin Wan village, where a car left the road and now lies at the bottom of the embankment. It is believed that there are no casualties.

A Chinese boy 15 years of age, was knocked down by a motor car at the junction of Caine Road and Old Bailey. He was removed to hospital suffering from injuries to his legs. The number of the car is not known.

ARMISTICE DAY.

YESTERDAY'S CHURCH SERVICE.

A STIRRING ADDRESS.

As reported yesterday the principal celebration in connection with the anniversary of Armistice Day was an impressive service at St. John's Cathedral. The clergy who took part included the Bishop of Victoria (the Rt. Rev. Dr. C. R. Dupper), the acting-Cathedral Chaplain (the Rev. J. T. Hoeman), the Rev. Gordon W. B. Stott, R.N., the Rev. C. N. Carver, the Rev. Archer Turner, the Rev. M. W. Shewell, the Rev. H. S. Crole-Rees, the Rev. G. R. Lindsy (St. Andrew's Church, Kowloon), the Rev. C. B. Shann (Warden of St. Stephen's College), and the Rev. G. T. Waldegrave acting-Bishop's Chaplain.

The Bishop preached from the text: "A City which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God" (Hebrews 11:10). We were only able to make a brief reference to the address yesterday. The full text of it was as follows:—

From this outpost of Empire our thoughts travel home to-day to our Motherland.

We feel that we are one with that vast throng which even now is surging round the Cenotaph in Whitehall: one in our tribute to the Noble Dead, to the men who counted not their lives as dear unto themselves, but freely laid them down for us—as we think of the whole, our tribute is only heightened as we recall this one and that one from among them whom we honoured and loved: one in the rededication of ourselves to the purpose for which they gave up their lives—the re-birth of this world in freedom and brotherhood: one in our acknowledgment of Almighty God and in our prayer to Him for His blessing upon the years to come: one in our confidence with them that the care of these our brethren is with the Most High: that it is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world: that it is Jesus Christ, the Resurrection and the Life, through Whom alone man attains to his joyful resurrection.

I say in these things we are one with the surging crowd round the Cenotaph at this hour; one with our brethren throughout the Empire throughout the world: One round that symbol of sacrifice which stands there in the heart of our nation's life.

II

But the thoughts of many of you, I doubt not travel on beyond that throng at the Cenotaph to-day; back to that great Peace Day Procession in London. There before you were the men whose names will go down in history: There, too, was our King and Emperor, and loyal hearts acclaimed him and his as those who had set a pattern in selfless service. But the centre of men's thoughts on that day was none of these: it was that simple, silent Cenotaph standing in Whitehall there. And as men filed past at the "Salute," and as men stood bareheaded before it, the poignant thought of all hearts was that of the price at which our freedom had been won.

III

But to-day our thoughts travel back behind this; back to this hour three years ago when the guns ceased to fire, and a strange silence fell upon the earth. How men's hearts thank God that it was all over at last; how they prayed that that hour might usher into the world a peace which should be Peace indeed; that that thing for which life and treasure had been poured out like water might come to pass, not the crushing of an enemy, but there-birth of the world in brotherhood and peace.

IV

Three years have passed away. We are living in a different world to-day; a wholly different world but still we have not seen, as yet, the re-birth of the world in brotherhood and peace. Men will tell you these have been some of the most disappointing years in all history—years of shameless compromise—years of high talk and small achievement—years when men saw a great ideal and came near to its accomplishment, and then gave up the heroic and fell back into the old routine of things, pleasure, money-making, and the ordinary commonplace of life—years when men have ceased to be stung by a high challenge, and given up hope for a better day or at least have pushed the hope of the coming of that day into a distant future—years in which men have looked for some great one to draw the masses of the world into some great common endeavour, and have found none who is great enough.

For myself, I do not think these years have been without hope. They have been years of extraordinary complexity and difficulty, and I think that much has been done: forces have been set in motion, which are working silently towards an end we cannot see. I believe in masses of men the spirit is there; it only waits for a great lead to awaken it again.

But that the world has not been reborn in brotherhood is sadly patent. Look just for a moment at Ireland; and look at what is taking place in China—go where you will, you will find soldiers drilling, and, as likely as not, you will get mixed up with contending parties.

"IN GRATEFUL MEMORY."

The wreath placed by His Excellency the Governor at the foot of the War memorial cross after the service had the inscription "From the Colony in grateful and affectionate memory."

An officer placed a wreath "From the Royal Artillery, Hongkong"; an officer of the Wilt. Regiment stepped ed forward with one from "The Officers and Other Ranks of the 2nd Duke of Edinburgh's (Wiltshire) Regt." Two sailors then placed a wreath and Mr. G. T. Edkins placed one "In memory of all old comrades from 'Talkoo.'" Other wreaths were as follows:—In memory of our fallen comrades, from the members of the H.K.S.R.G.A. Sergeant's Mess; the R.A.O.B., G.L.C., Oriental Lodge 3250, in memory of our fallen brethren, and in memory of our fallen brethren from the Officers and Members of the Harry Brettell Lodge 2680 R.A.O.B. There were also a number of private wreaths.

And if during these three years there has been failure, to what has it been due? to what but this: that we have not been simple enough, or gone deep enough, that we have not recognised that world brotherhood must have a supernatural basis; for what we are attempting to do in bringing in a better world is bringing in the infinite into this finite sphere—for all that can permanently endure must be infinite. It is bringing in what the Son of Man called the Kingdom of God; and if this is to be done, you must somehow touch the infinite in man's nature. Bringing gold standard to a normal level again is not enough.

And so

Poor sad humanity! Through all the dust and heat, Turns back, with bleeding feet, By the weary way it came Unto the simple thought By the great Master taught.

It is somehow, as men find the way to let God into their lives, that fellowship among men becomes really practical:

When each man shall be to other What God would have him be: Brother unto Brother.

a fellowship which shall be but a prelude to eternal fellowship. And so to each one of us, my brothers and sisters, there comes this day a great challenge.

A challenge from the sacrifice these our brothers made: a challenge from the sacrifice Christ made upon the Cross: a challenge not to lead lives of ease and selfishness and worldly ambition—for the pleasures of a generation perish with it; it is the sacrifice which remains; for throughout the universe the law holds "Except a grain of wheat fall into the earth and die, it abideth by itself, alone, but if it die it beareth much fruit."

A challenge to have a great purpose behind our lives, the bringing in of brotherhood and peace. We shall never, drift into brotherhood; what conquers must have behind it those who devote themselves to it. A challenge, above all, to let God more into our hearts, for

Where He is in the heart: City of God thou art.

The caravan of mankind is on the march, but whither is it marching? on the City of Materialism, the City which in the nature of things must pass away, or on towards the Eternal City—that City which has foundations whose builder and maker is God?

You hope much from the Peace Conference at Washington and you are right to have such hopes; but that Conference can only reflect what is in your hearts; can only be successful according to the lengths you are prepared to go. The tragedy of this generation will be if, having been called to live out our lives on a big, heroic scale, we live them out on a small and narrow scale.

So then, if you have tacitly given up the ideals of three years ago, claim them again to-day. If you have tried to forget the vows you made on the battlefield, fearlessly recall them now. Set before yourselves heroic ideals and heroic standards, and persevere towards their fulfilment.

Strengthen the wavering line, Stabilish, continue the march On to the bounds of the waste On to the City of God.

"Boy, beat me a retreat." Napoleon is reported to have said to his Drummer. "Sir," the boy replied "I know not how. Desaix never taught me that; I can beat an Advance which will make the Dead arise, I beat it at Lodi, I beat it at the Pyramids, and I will beat it now."

ARMISTICE NIGHT.

ST. GEORGE'S SOCIETY CELEBRATION.

A CAPITAL CONCERT.

From every point of view the smoking concert held by the Society of St. George in the Theatre Royal to commemorate Armistice Night must have been a thorough success. As many small tables as could reasonably be fitted into the space were laid out where the theatre stalls normally are but there were not anything like enough of them to accommodate all the guests. So just before the programme began there was a big overflow in the direction of the dress circle from which vantage point a hilarious symposium proceeded to put an element of what someone was heard to refer to as "pep" into the proceedings from a very early stage. His Excellency the Governor and the Colonial Secretary were amongst the guests.

Even if it had not had the advantage of being looked at, so to speak, through the end of the convivial glass the programme must, indubitably, have impressed the audience with its excellence. Every number pleased and if there was one which calls for special mention more than another it must be a remarkably clever little burlesque entitled "Omar Khayyam visits Hongkong" which was presented by Lieut. I. B. Franks R.N., as "Omar," Mrs. R.N. Stopford, as "Omelette," and Pay Lieut. L. V. Webb, O.B.E., R.N. as "The Ass." The piece was smartly staged and was studded with amusing topical allusions which the audience received with vociferous enthusiasm.

The first "assism," as the programme styled it, dealt with some of the more embarrassing aspects of a "Chin ese Chow" and the second related to a visit to Repulse Bay which Omelette made per medium of Omar's Crystal globe. "Ah!" cried Omelette "what see I here, there is a sound of much splashing." Omar peeped over her shoulder and made a grab at the magic sphere. "Give me that crystal, my daughter" the old sage said hurriedly, "you're looking at the bathroom." There was more laughter and loud cheering when Omar explained to Omelette in the next scene, a scene set "in any business Hong," that the continuation of the Peak tramway had been referred to the "never never sub-committee" and the last sketch illustrating the difficulties of telephonic communication in the Colony put the final seal of success upon the piece. Omar, Omelette and the Ass were recalled again and those who enjoyed their offering last night will look forward to the reappearance of the triumvirate on some not too far distant occasion.

Lieut. Franks was rewarded with equal success later for his songs at the piano and a similar contribution by Mr. F. H. Farthing was hugely enjoyed. "Robeyisms" by Mr. E. Hill and comic songs by Mr. V. C. Labrum added to the reputation of those two humorists and vocal numbers of a more or less serious character were successfully given by Miss Jean Lawson. Mr. E. T. Crocker, Mrs. H. A. Jones and Mr. T. G. Paterson, Lena and Tedo scored further successes both with their own original sketch "Take me down to Repulse Bay" and with their famous Coter sketches and a charming item "In Holland." In addition to supplying several accompaniments Mr. Eric Rice was responsible for an admirably played piano solo which was very well received. The frequent intervals for refreshments which occurred throughout the programme furnished the occasion for some capital selections by the Wilt Band.

ACCIDENTS WILL HAPPEN.

I may be impossible to prevent an accident, but it is not impossible to be prepared for it. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is not beyond anyone's purse, and with a bottle of this liniment you are prepared for most anything. For sale by all Chemists and Storekeepers.

HONGKONG TRADE.

PIECE GOODS MARKET VERY QUIET.

The fortnightly report of the Hongkong General Chamber of Commerce gives the following information:—

Cotton Piece Goods and Fancy Cotton Goods.—Our market is very quiet and clearances have fallen off. Robbers are reported to be very active in Kwangsi. Local values are practically unchanged.

Cotton yarn.—The market ruled very dull and an insignificant business was transacted. Values show substantial declines, viz., about 15 to 20 per bale all round. The fall in manufacturing centres and poor off-take are contributory causes.

Quotations are 10s at $155 to $182, No. 12s at $170 to $190, No. 16s at $190 to $210, No. 20s at $195 to $220.

Arrivals 4,500 bales, sales 1,000 bales, shipments nil, unsold stock 4,500 bales, bargains 8,000 bales.

Woolens.—A few stock sales of lastings have been made but for fresh business it is exceedingly difficult to get dealers interested. The falling dollar is placing Bradford prices well above what dealers will pay.

R. Cottons.—The market is void of business and values have declined substantially. The following quotations are entirely nominal.—Indian descriptions at $25 to $32 per picul. Chinese descriptions at $31 to $39 per picul.

Metals.—Business dull. No business reported.

Flour.—Stock: About 320,000 sacks. Quotations: American patent $3.35 per sack; American cut-off, $3.10 per sack; American straight, $2.95 per sack; Shanghai flour, $3 per sack.

Petroleum Products.—No Change. Sundries and Coals.—Window Glass, Market Quiet.

Sugar.—Market decline in. Saltpetre.—Stock 3,000 bags. Market steady.
